

THE HORRIFIC TALE OF GREAT UNCLE STILTON

2

The Return to Grubberly Hall

Looking at the text

ANSWERS IN RED

1. What were the first words Sarah's mother said? COPY THE SENTENCE USING SPEECH MARKS “ ”

The first words Sarah's mother said were, “I don't know how anyone could live like this.”

2.

Sarah, “looked at the all too familiar setting – the old toilet, the sackcloth and newspaper, the rat-hole in the skirting board, the plates that were lying there and the broken window. Then she looked at Gary and smiled.

Look at this list. What do you think was Sarah's most important memory?

Sarah's most important memory was probably the plates that were lying there and the broken window. ACCEPT ANY ANSWER based on the text above.

3. Copy the title of the book they found. Do it neatly, in any style of handwriting you choose.

The title of the book they found was

The Life Story of Major C. E. Cridling-Stilton. An Autobiography

4. It felt like Great Uncle Stilton was somehow crawling out of his grave. Why?

It felt like Great Uncle Stilton was crawling out of his grave because although he was dead they were reading about his life. It felt as if he was reaching out to them to explain why he had been the kind of person he was.

5. The book they found was an autobiography. Who wrote it? Be careful with spelling.

auto = self

bio = life

graph = writing

The book they found was written by Major C. E. Cridling-Stilton.

6. Where have you read this story before? I read it at the beginning of the book.

7. At the very end of the book it does not say, THE END. Copy what it says in CAPITAL LETTERS

THE BEGINNING

8. What do you think it might be the beginning of? DISCUSS THIS WITH SOMEONE ELSE

NOW NUMBER THE SUGGESTIONS IN ORDER – Most likely = 1 Least likely = 2 and so on.

The beginning of Gary and Sarah's life together	Happiness for everyone
Understanding why people like they are	Understanding why Stilton was like he was
Friendship between the Knights and Pounders	Clearing out Grubberly Hall

ACCEPT ANY LIST OF ANSWERS THAT CAN BE REASONABLY JUSTIFIED.